Referenced by the Cheng, Yen-Fa Letter No. 1040006666, March 17, 2015

Revisions of Article 4 and annex approved at the 704th Administrative Meeting on August 5, 2024

- Article 1 The Human Research Ethics Committee of National Chengchi University (hereinafter “the Committee”) and the Research Ethics Administration Office of National Chengchi University (hereinafter “the Office”) have established these standards for research ethics review services. These standards were put in place to facilitate the sustainable operation of the organization as to continue to ensure the protection of research participants.
- Article 2 The Committee's review services are divided into three categories: full-board review, expedited review, and exempt review. Each type of review is conducted according to the Committee's standard operating procedures.
- Article 3 Review charges are assessed according to the Committee’s charge standards table (see attached table).
- Article 4 The payment methods are as follows:
1. Applications must first be submitted to the Office in order to determine the type of review. After the review type is determined, the applicant will be notified to pay the charge. The review fee must be paid within three days of notification. If the applicant fails to pay within the deadline, the project will not be reviewed.
 2. For reviews of cases by university faculty, charges are initially based on the standards for projects with external funding. If it is confirmed that there is no external funding, the charge will be adjusted to the standard for unfunded projects, and the difference will be refunded with official document approval.
- Article 5 These regulations shall be implemented after approval by the administrative meeting of the University and shall be revised in the same manner hereafter.
